Sale of Real Estate At Auction

Small Farms, LANEXA FARM, at Lanexa Station, Va., Subdivided Into Small Farms, at Auction

Wednesday, Sept. 17th

The day of the small farm is here. There are more people in this section of Virginia this year who are able to buy farms of their own than there have ever been before. If you have the money for your cash payment, then your crops will take care of the deferred payments. Have a farm of your own-buy it at our sale.

Farm lands are increasing in value very rapidly from year to year, so why put off buying? Buy now, while they are within your reach. You are paying double the price for a small farm today over what you would have paid ten years ago, and ten years from today you will be paying double the price you are today.

Make up your mind today that you are going to have a small farm by attending our sale WEDNESDAY, SEP-TEMBER 17th, 10:30 A. M.

Description of the Property to be Offered

The Lanexa Farm, one-fourth mile from Lanexa Station, Va., on the C. & O. R. R., has been subdivided into several small farms and will be offered at auction in this manner. This farm contains a total acreage of about 1,000 acres and of this total acreage one-third is cleared and in cultivation. The land is of clay top soil with red clay subsoil, which produces fine crops of corn, wheat, peas, hay, clover. etc. The land is mostly level and is well watered by wells and springs. The buildings on the place consist of three tenant houses, three stables, and necessary outbuildings, all of which are in fair condition. If the buildings on the place are insufficient to meet your needs, there is sufficient timber on the place to erect all necessary buildings. An unlimited supply of cord wood which necessary buildings. An unlimited supply of cord wood, which as you well know is at a premium at this time.

Your price is going to do the buying on day of sale on the extremely easy terms of one-fourth cash, balance 1, 2 and 3 years. Terms like these place these nice small farms within your reach. Inspect the property today with a view of attending our sale, to be held on the property promptly at 10:30 A. M., WEDNESDAY,
